

On September 11, 2017, staffs from the federal banking agencies met with representatives from the Independent Community Bankers of America and the Mortgage Bankers Association. Also in attendance were representatives from the following banks: Flagstar Bank, FSB, HomeStreet Bank, The First State Bank, West Gate Bank, and Colonial Savings, F.A. During the meeting, representatives discussed the current capital treatment for mortgage servicing assets and their support of the proposed rule and of further changes to the current capital treatment of MSAs.
